Project Statement

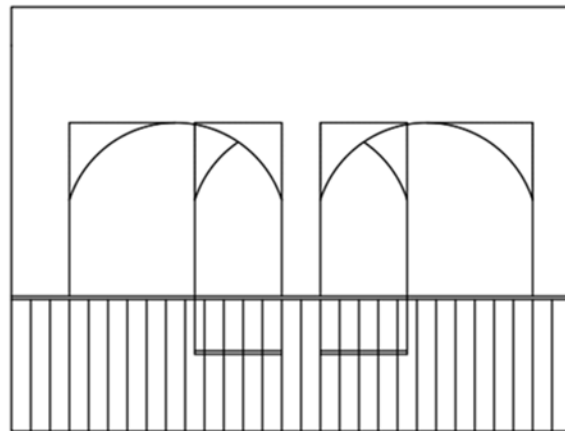

My client is a recently graduated girl who lives in San Diego, California. She is 25 and single. Laura loves to travel and loves reading books. Ever since she was in school, she was interested in the Bohemian style and this interest of hers started from one of her recent trips, when she visited France. The Bohemians, who migrated from the west of Czech republic to France, brought this style with them and over the years it got mixed with French style. Now my client has decided to remodel her bedroom and turn it into a Boho room!

Because her room is not very large, she wants more a minimal cozy room. A room with plants, a mix of different textures, textiles, prints, and colors. A warm wooden flooring and light colors for the walls adds value to the room and furniture. The custom-made window shade with those molding details evoke a vintage French room. Using pieces with aged hardware, and vintage inspired items give off a calming and a welcoming feeling to the room.

Design Statement

After a long busy day, no where can provide moderation and a sense of well-being better than a nice bedroom. The combination of the natural light that is from the big opening to the balcony windows, the mix of different colored furniture, and the boho style that my client has dreamed of for a long time, is what she wanted.

Using neutral colors like yellow and beige with a touch of red and orange and adding some green, as well as combining different textures, textiles, and prints make the bedroom for cozy and inviting to everyone.

The leather armchair in front of the balcony with that beautiful view would help her relax while reading her books. Meanwhile the vintage vanity with the round mirror reminds her trip to France. The bookcase in her room is there in order to put her books and some of her art piece that she brought home as souvenirs. The fringed bedding with a mix of different pillows help cultivate the look of this unique, creative space.

Moreover, for this style she is not worried about whether or not the patterns/designs go together. Overall, every single piece in this stunning bedroom has their own characteristic and portrays their own effect in the room.

I have some different layouts for her basic furniture. Based on which one she choose and what she wants, I will create a beautiful Boho room for her to enjoy!

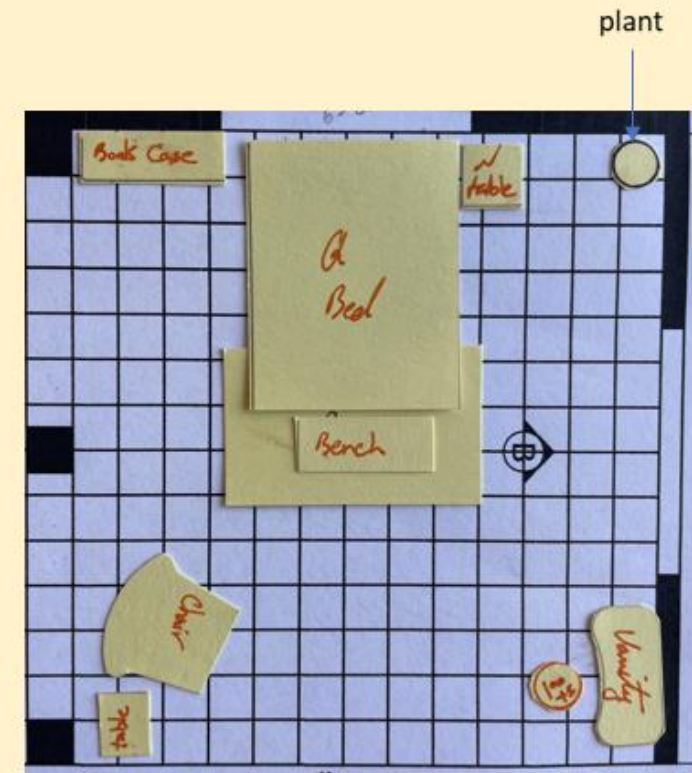

The sliding glass door opens from the left side and the right door is stationary.

The background is a light beige, textured surface. It is framed by a thin gold border. Stylized leaves in shades of brown, tan, and green are positioned around the edges. Some leaves have white geometric patterns like triangles and dots. A small, dark, pointed object is visible near the bottom center.
